INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON POPULATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Report of the Preparatory Committee for the International Conference on Population and Development on its second session

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In its resolution 1993/76 of 30 July 1993, entitled "Preparations for the International Conference on Population and Development", the Economic and Social Council recommended that the Preparatory Committee for the International Conference on Population and Development become a subsidiary body of the General Assembly, without prejudice to current arrangements for the participation in the International Conference on Population and Development and its preparatory process, and decided that the report of the Preparatory Committee on its second session should be submitted to the Assembly at its forty-eighth session, to be considered under the agenda item entitled "International Conference on Population and Development".

2. The report of the Preparatory Committee has been issued under the symbol E/1993/69 and will be made available to the Assembly at its current session.
